Class History

On the day of September 18, 1948 a group of 54 very excited boys and girls began their first hectic day at Madison High. Like little lost sheep we roamed the halls not knowing where to go or what to do, but under the guidance of Mr. Cure and Mr. Guiton we soon became accustomed to High School tradition.

With the help of Mr. Cure our boys won the class tournament from the Seniors to prove their athletic ability as freshmen.

Later in the year, we went to Reynolds Park on a picnic and swimming party.

Our class officers were Leon Tucker President, Nancy Price Vice President, Bobby Dickerson Treasurer, Delphine Wall Secretary, Joann Joyce Reporter.

Our most social event for that year was the Sophmore-Senior weiner roast at Hawkins Pond, we also went to Chapel Hill to visit the Morehead Planetarium and toured the University of N.C. Another important event was carrying the Daisy Chain at graduation.

The girls enjoyed a weiner roast at the home of Patsy Sharpe.

The class officers for our Sophomore year were Leon Tucker President, Patsy Sharpe Vice President, Othelia Hall Secretary, and Delphine Wall Treasurer.

Every Junior looks forward to the Junior Senior Banquet, and our class was no exception. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. John Webster and Mrs. Green we began early preparations for the big event. We gave a baby contest and talent show and finally came through with a superb banquet for the departing Seniors. The banquet was held at the Belvedere Hotel at Reidsville N. C. It was really a wonderful affair and enjoyed by everyone.

This year the annual girls weiner roast was held again at the home of Patsy Sharpe.

For the third consecutive year Leon Tucker was elected President. Patsy was again chosen Vice President. Secretary was Delphine Wall, Treasurer Nancy Jane Price, Reporter Eunice Dodson.

Then came Summer vacation. We all became aware of the fact that next Fall we would be the "Dignified Seniors."

Although less in number we were still strong in spirit as we began the last year of our Public education.

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Rich we began Preparations to make this our final year a huge success.

Class officers for this year were Billy Reynolds President, Jack Webster Vice President, Othelia Hall Secretary and Leon Tucker Treasurer.

We were very proud that our candidate for Home Coming Queen, Delphine Wall, won with an overwhelming majority.

The annual staff got the ball rolling immediately to make the Annual of 52 the best one ever published at Madison High.

We thank the Juniors for the splendid banquet given in our honor, and all agreed that it could not have been enjoyed or appreciated more.

This year the weiner roast for the girls was held at the home of Joann Joyce, it proved to be the best one given.

In a few weeks we will have reached our goal and will start out on the highway of life taking with us the cherished memories of our many friends, happy experiences, and our old Alma Mater.

Class Prophecy

As time rings down the curtain on our classes in Madison High, I find yet a moment left to dream. The last bell rings, and as our footsteps leave a lonely echo in the halls, my fancy flies far into the future.

The time is ten years hence, and through a mist, I see my classmates dreams fulfilled. Suddenly the roar of a crowd jars me. It is the 1962 Madison Local's Basketball team, crashing to victory with none other than Mary Jane Atkins for a coach.

The mists of time clear, and I see more plainly two figures in white emerge, who I recognize as Nellie Blair and Nancy Jo Webster. They are registered nurses at St. Leo's Hospital, where they give their best, as they have done for years.

I find Ellen Bullock living on a farm near Ellisboro with a small family.

Eunice Dodson is lending a helpful hand to the Dean of Women at Peace College in Raleigh.

Louise Dodson, so patient and kind is a house mother in an orphanage.

My mind strays to find Norma Jean Fuller in leading a Baptist Orphanage.

Betty Gentry is a cigarette girl in a night club in Washington.

As I take in on Othelia Hall, I see her working hard as a seamstress for Raleigh Haberdasher, a department store, in Washington, D. C.

Ann Hand has been associated for many years with Macks 5 and 10 cent store in Madison.

Loretta Holt is conducting a day school for small children in Raleigh.

Joan Joyce finally married Frankie, after many years of courtship and settled down on a little farm near Madison.

Lee Ann Joyce graduated from Appalachian State Teachers College and is now teaching school in Walnut Cove.

After many years of anxiety, Gail Manning is now wearing both rings of her schoolday's flame, Ray.

The Red Cross has acquired the valuable services of Lula Mae Manuel.

Marie Minter is an able music teacher in a grammar school at Draper, N. C.

Weary and tired from her hours of labor in a boarding house for college girls, I find Sadie Nelson very busy planning meals and cleaning house.

I see Rose Pierce making her way to the States: Rose has been teaching school in England for four years.

As my dream continues, I see another classmate Nancy Price is a big name in teenage hat designing.

Way down in Tennessee I spy Joan Ragsdale. She seems very happy with her husband and three children.

Peggy Southern has been a telephone operator for Bell Telephone Company for a number of years now.

Behind the scenes I see many of my classmates playing a number one role in society as wives and mother. Among them, I pay tribute to Patsy Vaughn who is wife of the year.

My dream now takes me to California where I spy Delphine Wall who is now a music lover and teacher and I congratulate her on being "Number one teacher of the year."

Closer home, I find my classmate Vickie Washburn coaching basketball at Reidsville High along with Ronny Somers as the boys coach.

Elizabeth White, whose quiet and unassuming manner has made many friends for her, is writing the lovelorn column in a big newspaper.

Through the future I hear Louise Wilson playing the piano at Mt. Tabor Methodist Church where her husband, Charles, is choir director.

As my search for the "Seniors" of 52 continues, I find Lee Anglin as a doctor aiding coach Leon Tucker's ailing football players in Pulaski, Virginia.

Olyian Bullins, Norman Moore, and A. G. Webster are master farmers and are progressive leaders in Agriculture work of Rockingham County.

As I look ahead on my list, I see Bobby Clark as adviser of a hosiery mill in Asheboro, N. C.

Billy Gentry is a tobacco auctioneer for Peppers Warehouse in Winston Salem.

In the distance my eye lights on an ambitious Naval officer stationed at Norfolk Virginia. He is none other than Roger Lewis.

J. Lee Ramsey fast as a streak of lightning, is a professional stock car driver.

My dream of the future continues, and I find Billy Reynolds and Carlton Clark playing professional ball for the New York Giants while Carlton Rierson is a star pitcher for the Cleveland Indians.

Stafford Stevens is a very busy man who owns Amoco service stations throughout the United States.

As my dream draws to a close, I hardly see a trace of Jack Webster but gradually I recognize him as a Professor of History at William and Mary College, Virginia.

All this is most too much for the dreamer and once more into reality I awaken. These pleasant views of our classmates can become a reality with our best efforts and also with the aid our beloved friends, teachers, and parents can give us.

Class Poem

Now that our school days will soon be at an end,
We will go forth a new life
to begin.
Let's not allow our friendships to perish,
For we have a great many memories to cherish.

Many have been our troubles and trials,
Though we've been through the years
with a smile.
But our happy days will be much greater in number,
So now let us not allow ourselves to slumber.

Our teachers have been so grand through the years,
So let's all stand and give them three cheers.
They've been so patient, we appreciate all they've done.
Though sometimes they've been harsh, each of our hearts they have won.

All the parties, games and picnics at which we had fun,
Each good time we've had, no one has forgotten a one.
We'll never forget the studying we did
for a test,
When each one wanted to do his best.

Basketball, baseball, football and all the rest,
We the class of "52" always did our best.
Good sportsmanship has always been
our goal,
And we worked at it with all our heart and soul.

Even though our paths will lead each of us
a different way,
Let's all try to make our lives better
day by day.
We'll always remember our standards and the golden rule,
And stand up for the things which we've learned in school.

Class Song

Now is the time
For us to say goodbye.
Soon we'll be leaving
Dear old Madison High.
When we are gone,
To those who take our place,
We leave our hope
Of fine success to them.

We the class
Of 1952
Do strive to seek
And obtain our goal.
We thank those
Who have been so kind--
We'll carry the mem'ries with Us through the years.

Late in the summer of 1949 a group of scared and excited young people began their high school careers in M. H. S. During the eighth grade several students had joined us from Intelligence and then we gained several from Huntsville so we were a large class. We thought ourselves lucky to have Mr. Cure and Mrs. G. T. Martin as our sponsors and with their help we went through that first week without any "broken bones". It was fun getting used to the new routine of school work and before we knew it it was May and we were free for summer vacation.

All too soon vacation was over and we came back to school a little happier with the thought that we were Sophomores. The year proved to be a successful one with Mrs. Fagge and Miss Epps as our able leaders. The year was ended with a weiner roast for the Seniors which was held at the Mason's pond. Everyone injoyed it and we had loads of fun.

When the school year of 1951 began we entered school determined to make this the most successful year we had known so far. Immediately we began working on our Junior-Senior Banquet. Miss Maude Webster and Miss Elizabeth Davis have proven valuable in our plans as our Junior Leaders. All ready we have had several cake sales and have operated a concession stand at the home football games. Our desire is to do good work and to leave Madison High a better place because we were part of it.

This season Madison got off to a slow start. In the first grid-iron-clash of the season Mills Home rolled to a 21-14 victory in a game that was rained out on the regular scheduled night, Friday, and had to be played on Monday. The next six games were all Madisons' as they racked up 167 points to their opponents 24. They first clashed with Guilford and won 27-0. This being the first time Madison has beaten Guilford in six years. Then came Rankin, a class AA school, in which was a close game the first half, but ended up in a 30-0 romping. The following weeks Madison defeated Trinity 34-6, Mayodan 35-0, Draper 13-6, and Walunt Cove 28-12 in that order. Then, lacking power through the middle of the line Madison lost to Jamestown, also a AA school, by a 12-7 score. In the last clash of the season, Madison encountered a heavy Stoneville eleven and came out with its seventh win, so they won 28-12. The final record was seven triumphs to only 2 defeats.

After we had won five games while dropping only one, "Jo" Clark and Carlton Rierson were reported to Coach Cure as ineligible due to their ages. It was no fault of "Jo's" or Carltons, and certainly none of Mr. Cures. It was just one of those things that can happen to either good or bad teams.

We have to give credit to "Jo" and Carlton as two of the best linemen Madison High has ever seen, and are all very sorry for their being declared ineligible, not only because of football but also because of baseball and basketball. "Jo" starred in both, while Carlton was a swell pitcher on the baseball squad.

It is everyone's regret that five games were forfeited but, in all the boys hearts they know that they won the games fair and square. We feel that the other teams feel the same. If not, just look at the scores.

Total Record: 17 Games Won, 4 Games Lost

* Denotes Playoff Games:  Denotes State Championship Games

In 1951 the Madison High baseball squad came through in very fine fashion winning 17 games and losing only 4.

To start the season off, Madison played their arch rivals, Mayodan, and won 8 to 0. Next game Bethany, and again we won 8 to 0. Madison then traveled to Altamahaw Ossippee and came back home with a close but sure 3 to 1 victory. Stoneville was the next game and again Madison won 8 to 0. Madison won the next two games 14 to 3 and 4 to 0, over Walnut Cove, and Ruffin respectively. Then Altamahaw Oss. visited Madison and went home with a 2 to 0 score. This loss was the first regular season loss in 24 starts. After this defeat won their next five games over Mayodan 10 to 3, Walnut Cove 4 to 3, Bethany 12 to 0, and Altamahaw Ossippee 5 to 1 in a game which was played for the district winner. Madison then traveled to Ruffin and was defeated, in an extra inning clash, by 6 to 5.

The playoff for the state starter after the Ruffin game, and Madison drew White Plains. Madison took two straight games from the big score of 5 to 0 and 5 to 2. Madison then had to defeat Clemmons in the quarter finals, and came through with 7 to 0 and 5 to 1 games. The semifinals were very close games, as Madison won two straight from Thomasboro 4 to 3 and 5 to 2. Madison then played Stoneville in the final regular season clash and won 13 to 4.

The finals for the state championship team finally were here. The first time Madison had been to the state finals in two odd years. The opposing team was to be West Edgecombe, a very strong team representing the East. In the first game West Edgecombe won by 5 to 3 in a very hard fought game. In the final game West Edgecombe again won by 8 to 5. The total games won for Madison was 17 and the losses amounted to only 4, a pretty good record in any league.

Bill Reynolds, the very able center-fielder and pitcher for Madison was chosen on the All-State team, in which is a great honor for any school boy. Dub Rumley, a fine pitcher, and Lee Anglin, third-baseman were Honorable-Mention All-States also.

Congratulations to a very fine 1951 ball club.
